Looking to channel your inner artist? These three must-visit specialty art stores not only stock a unique selection, they also offer exciting hands-on classes.

› LOTUS DESIGN GROUP, Stuart

This waterfront studio, operated by Rick Eggert, is home to fine-crafted modern room accents (above). Visitors can shop the dynamic gallery for the perfect conversation piece and participate in a variety of glassblowing classes. (772-214-2103, rickeggert.com)

› MCMOW ART GLASS, Lake Worth

Browse for unique stained-glass gifts (right) and supplies in McMow's vibrant retail store. A leader in the industry, the locale provides classes where students can make items such as stained-glass night-lights, fused glass garden stakes and holiday displays. (561-585-9011, mcmow.com)

› IRIS MOON'S BOCA BEADS, Boca Raton

Whether you're hunting for rare gemstones or a one-of-a-kind jewelry piece (right), Iris Moon's Boca Beads is your source for everything beads. The boutique teaches classes at different experience levels, and all are welcome to Thursday beading nights—a store tradition—for food, fun and, of course, beading. (561-477-8760, irismoon.com)
